

Staci Headley, Regional Development Planner

Staci comes to Region Five with a degree in Organizational Behavior. As a Regional Development Planner, Staci has experience in Transportation Planning including fulfilling program requirements of the MnDOT planning grant. She currently is involved in Community Development tasks and other specialty projects including project management, grant writing and working with external partners for comprehensive planning services.

Additionally, Staci is responsible for maintaining the administrative duties and external marking and communications for Region Five Development Commission, Resilient Region and NCEDA.