

Tourism and Small Business Resource Summit

Sponsored by East
Central Regional Development Commission
in partnership with
Region Five Development Commission and Arrowhead Regional

This is great opportunity to learn about resources and services available for those wishing to start a new tourism related business, expand their existing one or help promote tourism in the region.

Topics to be covered at this event include a review of demographics and statistics applicable to the tourism industry, assistance with business plans, financing programs, success stories, marketing and other resources.

This summit is free, but RSVP to reserve your spot.
